the reason is-TAXES.

In 1912 the railroads, telegraph and telephone companies $110,000,000—the figures are taken from statistics gathered ly the United States Government. With the income tax law in effect, these public service utilities should pay not less than $125,000,000 a year in taxes.

Uncle Sam pays no taxes, and so, under government ownership the individual States would lose not less than a million dollars income. It is unlikely that the ghost will become a reality til some means are devised by which this huge loss to the State can be offset. St. Louis Star.

At one time when John Wesley was traveling in Ireland, his carriage became stuck in the mire, and the harness broke. While he and his companions were laboring to extriate it, a poor man passed by in evilent distress.

Mr. Wesley called to him, and asked him what was wrong. He said that he could not pay his rent of twenty shillings, and that his family were to be turned outdoors.

"Is that all you need?" said Mr Wesley, as he gave him the money "Here, go and be bappy." Then turning to his companion, he said. pleasantly: "You see now why our carriage stopped here in the mud!"-Youth's Companion,
